Sports Day Fun Rescheduled

KLONDIKE GOLD-RUSH BANK—The first bank at Dawson, Yukon, in the Klondike gold rush of 1898, was a rough wood-framed, canvas-covered shack, and it has been recreated by the Bank of Montreal as part of the Dawson City Gold Rush Festival, which opened Sunday, July 1. The office was established by the Bank of British North America, which later merged with the B of M. The first manager, David Doig, and two clerks took 47 days to travel—by steamer, dog-sled, pack-pony and canoe—the 1,500 miles from Vancouver to Dawson to set up the sourdoughs' first bank. Present B of M manager, bewhiskered Roy McPhail, who was elected first president of the Festival in 1960, is depicted here in the doorway of the tent-shack chatting with customers in period costume. Shown inset, he weighs gold dust on scales of the type used during the Klondike gold rush. The present B of M building, in the background, was erected in 1901 by big Alex McDonald, "King of the Klondike."

Lac la Biche Celebrations To Be Held Saturday, July 14

Rain and mud put an end to the fun planned for Dominion Day in Lac la Biche. A game or two was played on Sunday, July 1, but the parade and big events scheduled for Monday were rained out.

This Saturday another attempt will be made. Weather willing, a mammoth parade headed by the RCMP Detachment and followed by Sea Cadets, Wrenettes, Legionnaires, Lac la Biche Citizens' Band, and numerous other floats and displays will march to the Lakeview Stadium, where eight baseball teams will play.

Prizes in the baseball competition, aside from ladies' softball, total $650. Teams playing are Safeway Seals, Cold Lake Northlanders, Vilna, Waskatenau, St. Lina, Kikino, Jasper Place Pirates, Athabasca, Boyle, Grassland, Plamondon and Lac la Biche.

There will be races for the children, ice cream, and an implement, tractor and auto display.

A big dance in the Lac la Biche Memorial Hall at 9 p.m. will climax the Sports Day activities .

New Owners, Mr., Mrs. Malanchuk Plan Official Opening July 2

THORHILD — The Grand Theatre in Thorhild has recently changed hands and the official opening under the new management will take place on Monday, July 2.

The theatre, previously owned by Walter Bachynski of Thorhild and Mrs. Mary Puchalik of Edmonton, was recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Steve Malanchuk of Edmonton.

The building will receive face-lifting, and renovation to the front part of the building is already under way. Mr. and Mrs. Malanchuk expect to devote their full time to the theatre business.

Mr. Malanchuk, of Ukrainian origin, came to Canada from Germany in 1948. He is a steam-fitter by trade and for the past nine years was employed by the Texaco Oil Co. in Edmonton.

Mrs. Malanchuk, the former Miss Phyllis Jason of North Star district in the Peace River area, obtained her education at Manning and took some business training at the McTavish College in Edmonton. For over seven years she was employed by the GWG Garment Factory in Edmonton.

Baby Baptized On Grandparents' Silver Wedding

HAMILTON-FOREST HILLS — A happy day was spent at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Finlay on Sunday, June 24.

A family dinner for 46 was served at noon, following the christening of their grandson, Michael William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tod, at McQueen Memorial United Church, Mannville, by the Rev. F. G. Andrews.

In the afternoon and evening, friends dropped into extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Finlay on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Many lovely gifts were received, including a well filled dish of silver presented to them by Ernie Proll on behalf of the community. Tea was served on the lawn. Visitors were present from Hardisty, Hughesden, Vermilion, Edmonton, Fort Churhill, Manitoba and Grand Valley, Ontario.

Cold Lake's Square Dance Club Ends Season With Gala Event

Cold Lake's square dance club, the Lakeside Squares, wound up its dancing season on Saturday, May 26, with a special affair held in the public school auditorium. To do the calling, Bob Dixon came from RCAF Station, Rivers, Man. Bob was their club caller from the time the Lakeside Squares was formed in September, 1959, until he was transferred to Rivers in September 1961. Everyone was glad to see Bob again and a wonderful evening of dancing was had to his calling. There were visitors from Edmonton, Dewberry, Meadow Lake and the airforce base. The evening was brought to a close with a delicious buffet lunch of sliced turkey, sandwiches, pie and ice cream. The committee of the Lakeside Squares is to be commended indeed for a very enjoyable roundup dance to mark the end of a very successful squaredancing season.

The Polar Squares on the airbase held a "get-acquainted" dance on Wednesday, May 30th in the Social Centre for the three groups of square dancers—these included the Monday evening group being instructed by John Essex, Orv Johnson's Tuesday night group and Len Good's Thursday group. The purpose of the dance was primarily, of course, to have a lot of fun but also to permit the members of the three groups to meet and get to know each other. Partway through the evening, the proceedings were halted briefly for the election of a new committee. Kelly Davis conducted the voting operation in whirlwind fashion and within fifteen minutes the following new committee was formed: Chairman, Sgt. Gord Bates (and wife Jeanne); Vice-Chairman, Cpl. Ron Duncan and Maxine; Secretary, Cpl. Eric Berryman and Barbara; Treasurer, LAC John Mogg and Gwen. The retiring committee of Kay and John Lyndon, Joyce and Mert Crawford, Merritta and Kelly Davis and Joan and Roy King was given a hearty round of applause. After a full program of dancing pleasure, the evening was brought to an end by the serving of cake, ice cream and coffee.

Mannville Resident Recovers Purse

Those persons who often remark that "the world is going to the dogs" will no doubt be happy to know that there are still honest people around.

A certain lady from the country lost her change purse which contained a considerable amount of money. The said purse had no form of identification in it.

This purse was found on the street in Mannville by a gentleman who had nothing by which to trace the owner but a grocery slip with only the storekeeper's name on it. However, this he did, and the purse was returned, intact, to its grateful owner.

Popular Family Go To Homestead

CHERRY GROVE — A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sales for Pastor and Mrs. Fred Quist on Friday evening, June 22. Fred and Sylvia, with their two small sons, are leaving to take up homesteading at High Level. They have built a compact trailer and left on June 28 for their new home.

Since moving to Grand Centre Mr. and Mrs. Quist have worked faithfully with the young people in the district and gave their help freely to a non- denominational Sunday School in Cherry Grove, as well as travelling out every Friday evening for youth group meetings.

Cow Rescued From Muskeg

CHERRY GROVE — A rather unusual rescue operation was performed in Cherry Grove last week when one of Walter Delcoy's cows got stuck in the muskeg southwest of town.

Neighbors came to the rescue and, as the ground was too soft to use tractors, waded out to her with a large piece of plywood and lifted her on to it. Then, with ropes attached to that, and much tugging and straining, hauled her to safety.

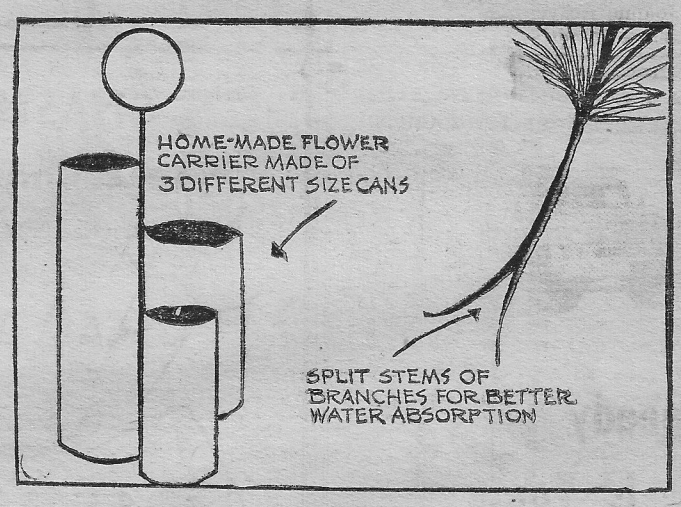
"Meg", who would tip the scales at close to the 1800 pound mark, is a valuable Holstein from Walter's milking herd, and seemed none the worse for her experience. Much of the land around here is very soft and treacherous since the near fooding conditions of past weeks.

Shower Honors Maxine Kozak

BELLIS — A shower party was held for Miss Maxine Kozak and Stanley Romanko on June 29. at Lilly Field hall. The evening was spent dancing to the music of Bellis orchestra.

They were presented with an electric toaster and an ash tray with stand.

Garden Graph



Care and Treatment of Cut Flowers

Summer is the time to enjoy your garden flowers indoors as well as outdoors. In the case of annuals, the more you pick the more you have.

The heat of one's hand, the hot sun or wind are all detrimental to the flowers, so a good method of preventing flowers from wilting too quickly is to take a pail of water out into the garden. As each flower or branch of blossoms is cut, plunge the cut end into water immediately.

As shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph, attractive water carriers can easily be made at home. It is so much better than a pail as there are three compartments. One should be for short-stemmed flowers, such as pansies, another for those of medium height and a tall can for tall spikes, such as delphiniums or branches. To make such a carrier, use three different sizes of cans, plus an old broom, cane or umbrella handle. Solder the cans together. Painting or spraying on the inside and outside helps to prevent their rusting.

As shown, the woody stems of shrubs and trees should be split with a sharp knife for two or three inches back from the cut end. It is also advisable to peel back the bark an inch or more. This makes it easier for the stems to absorb water and consequently the blooms and foliage will last longer.

THE WORLD FAMOUS RCAF Training Command Band will perform prior to the Grandstand shows at this year's Edmonton Exhibition July 16-21, and for the RCMP Musical Ride under lights.

St. Alphonsus Parishioners To Witness Church Blessing

Sunday, July 15 will be a day to remember for the parishioners of St. Alphonsus Parish, Boyle. On this day they will witness the blessing of their new church and rectory, by His Excellency Most Rev. P. Lussier, C. Ss. R, D.D., at 4 p.m., thus bringing to a fitting conclusion many years of hardship and effort on their part.

For over 20 years Boyle and district Catholics were served by the Redemptorist Fathers from St. Gabriel's Parish of Athabasca, of which Boyle was a mission, as the parishioners had no church, mass was offered in the old school, the post office, and for many years the Greek Catholic Church. As the cillage of Boyle grew and the number of parishioners increased, it was decided to build a church, thus under the direction of Rev. F. Skaluba, C.Ss.R., work was begun on the new structure. The parishioners then petitioned the Bishop of St. Paul for a resident priest, thus by the favor of the Bishop, Boyle was raised to the status of a parish in October, 1960, with St. Alphonsus Church, Boyle, to be the parish church, and the mission churches of Donatville, Prosperity, St. Bruno and the stations of Balsam Grove and New Pine Creek to be served from Boyle. The first resident parish priest appointed to the new parish was Rev. W. J. O'Farrell, who is still the pastor.

The new church is constructed of brick and cement block. The inside is finished in mahogany and knotty pine, and the new pews are of solid oak; a beautiful life-size crucifix hangs over the main altar—it was made by Guardo Art Studios, Montreal. Most of the work on the new church and rectory was done by the parishioners, and they can take pride in the new structure. After the blessing a banquet will be served in the community centre, in honour of the Bishop.

MAGISTRATE SAYS:

Hundreds Of Prostitutes Listed On Welfare Rolls

The "free and easy manner" in which provincial welfare payments are handed out has been severely criticized by an Edmonton magistrate in city police court.

Magistrate George L. Jones said there are several hundred prostitutes who are getting welfare cheques and vouchers. He added "it seems to me provincial welfare officers take a very light view of their responsibilities if they don't look into these things instead of handing out public funds in a free and easy manner."

Magistrate Jones made the comment in connect with a 20-year old woman who was picked up for vagrancy "A" by the city police. The woman, who just had a child was placed on a year's probation.

The granting of welfare to known prostitutes has presented a particular broblem to the city police in curbing prostitution and reducing the incidence of venereal disease.

One police detective said outside the courtroom some women place them selves on welfare to avoid being arrested for vagrancy "A" which is not having any apparent means of support. The majority of women are arrested for vagrancy 'A' because of the difficulty of getting direct evidence of prostitution. However, when the court hears the accused is on welfare and consequently has means of support, the case is usually dismissed.

Last year 194 women were arrested for vagrancy in Edmonton 159 were convicted.

Police say the nightwalkers do not get enough from welfare to live the way they would like to. Through prostitution they can pick up $15 to $50 and even $100 a day.

Magistrate Jones said to the welfare worker "it is quite obvious to me you haven't even investigated the case. Your examination of the case has been absolutely perfunctory." The evidence given by the welfare worker showed that she had questioned the woman but had not visited her residence, or contacted her parents.

The magistrate said that whether the girl is guilty is neither here nor there . . . she needs mental help as well as material help.

Witnesses Plan 3-Day Convention

The Watch Tower Society has arranged to hold a 3-day convention for Jehovah's Witnesses at the Edmonton Gardens, July 27-29. J. Austin Held, city spokesman for the Witnesses, stated that the convention will attract approximately 3,000 delegates from central and northern Alberta.

Mr. Held announced that all 13 Witness congregations in Edmonton have begun a house-to-house search for moderately priced rooms to accommodate the visiting delegates. Each congregation received a special briefing on proper canvassing procedure. Only those Witnesses who qualified in tactfulness and politeness were issued authorization cards to engage in the "room hunt".

"All delegates will be clean, dedicated Christian people who will show the utmost respect for people's homes," Mr. Held said. "They will require only sleeping accommodations since meals will be available at the convention cafeteria."

Mr. Held felt assured that abundant accommodations would be obtained in only a few days canvassing, as in the past the people of Edmonton have shown a hospitality that was gratifying.

Clare E. Statton and Kenneth Little, Watch Tower officials from the Canadian Branch Office at Toronto, will preside during the convention.

The convention, titled "Courageous Ministers District Assembly", will highlight the firm stand Jehovah's Witnesses have taken in the fight for freedom of worship in Canada, and is designed to promote a finer teaching work in Bible education.

All sessions will be open to the public.

Life is impeded by people who want the benefits without the accompanying obligations.

ART OR UTILITY?

A CWA artist was commissioned to paint murals in the reptile house at the Natural zoo.

He turned to admire his work and discovered an energetic lizard climbing up a tree trunk neatly painted on the side of his cage.

"Come—look!" shouted the artist to the zoo director. "How's that for art? Even fools the lizard."

News From Other Alberta Districts

Over 500 Horses Sold At Auction

Old Friend Found In Native Roost

DEWBERRY — To further illustrate that it's a small world and that its ways are fickle comes the example experienced in Dewberry last week. Tom West, a native of this district, and at or near the stage in years where life is supposed to begin, was a carpenter employed by Imperial Lumber Co. Ltd. at Imperial Mills, way up north of Lac la Biche and way back when . . . approximately in 1947, to be more exact.

A period of almost exactly 15 years has elapsed since this reporter first met Tom in the lumber mill camp. Some four months later, three fast friends parted company in Edmonton and went separate ways. Contact has been lost with one of them but Tom himself has been found making his home in his old home town and doing very well at that.

After taking leave of his friends in Edmonton, Tom returned to eastern Alberta, worked in Vermilion and Wainwright. At the latter town, he met the gal who is now Mrs. West, and he is now the father of three boys and a daughter. He took over the Imperial Oil Bulk Sales agency in Dewberry some 10 years ago and is at present coming around from a spell of ill-health. "If there is any work to be done around here," Tom insists, "there are other people to do it. But if there is any fishing to be done, I'll do it." The sound of his fine, sonorous, baritone voice brings back fond memories of bunkhouse days, when his guitar-accompanied renditions of Ink Spots numbers reverberated during the still evenings in the timber-haled lumber camp.

The menu was fried chicken in wine, apple and banana salad, and cooked peas. The dinner was served by candle light and during the dinner soft French music was supplied by pupils.

After the dinner, the evening was spent dancing.

Dr. Merlin now practices medicine in partnership with Dr. Skrobot in the St. Albert Shopping Centre.

The evening, which consisted of games and dancing, was climaxed by the serving of a buffet supper. A presentation of a copper cannister set was made to the Merlins by Malcolm MacKay, on behalf of those present.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN CHAREST

Joyce Peters, John Charest Exchange Vows In Edmonton

IRON RIVER — The Edmonton Apostolic Church was the scene of a lovely spring wedding when Miss Joyce Peters became the bride of Mr. John Charest.

Baskets of white and gold gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony performed by Rev. John Francis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Peters of Iron River. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Charest of Quebec City, P.Q.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a floor-length gown of silk organza, designed with bouffant skirt, felted bodice, lily point sleeves, appliqued with chantilly lace on skirt and beic. The illusion veil veil was held place by a seed pearl and rhinestone halo and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis.

Her sister, Miss Carol Peters, was junior bridesmaid. Se wore a full skirted dress of apple green organza. Gold carnations formed her bandeau head-piece and nose gay.

Miss Nellie Zaboschuk, who was maid-of-honor, wore a full-skirted dress of emerald green organza with yellow flowered hat and matching bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mr. Richard Peters was best man and usher was Mr. Frank Wilson.

Wedding music was played by Miss Grace McEwen and soloist was Rev. Bill Francis.

A two piece ensemble of crushed mint organza over printed taffeta with matching accessories was chosen by the bride's mother and her corsage was yellow roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the King Edward Hotel, at which Mr. R. B. MacGillivray proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast the bride changed to a green printed silk skirt-waist dress with yellow and tan accessories. On their return the couple will reside in Edmonton.

Popular Family Honored At Party

MINBURN — Friends and relatives of Marge, Wayne and Larry Barker gathered in the community hall, to honor this local family at a farewell party and dance.

Wayne is retiring after 22 years service with the Alberta Pacific Grain Co. Marge and Wayne, supported many organizations during their residence in Minburn and until recently were active members of the Curling Club. Larry will be missed by the members of the Jr. High Baseball team, and the Curling Club, he actively participated in both these sports.

Ray Rustad supplied recorder and records, with S. Johnson of Edmonton playing accordian solos for a few of the dances. J. Kufeldt presented Marge and Wayne with a purse of money on behalf of those present.

Best wishes are extended from this district to the Barkers in their future plans and we hope to see them often on visits to Minburn.

Vermilion's Royal Show Unique In Alberta, Says Mayor McCormick

"This is the first event of its kind in Alberta and we intend to make it an annual affairs," said Mayor C. J. McCormick on opening Vermilion's Royal Horse Show and Auction which was held at the Vermilion Exhibition Grounds on Friday and Saturday, June 29 and 30.

Over 500 horses were sold and visitors flocked to the two-day event, which attracted not only local residents but buyers and traders from Edmonton, Lacombe, Calgary, Provost and as far afield as Quebec and Ontario.

Mayor McCormick opened the proceedings in appropriate fashion by arriving at the grounds on a dashing palamino stallion owned by M. G. Ross.

He extended a warm welcome to all and congratulated the promoters of the sale for their fine efforts. The visitors present included Mr. C. Smallwood, MP for Battle River, who also paid tribute to a unique show.

Apart from the scores of traders, horse dealers and buyers who were there strictly on business, old timers and retired farmers mingled with the crowds around the corrals, eyeing with nostalgia the many horses there and no doubt recalling as they gazed at the draft horses, the buckskins, the palaminos, the pintos and the Appaloosians other bygone days when his four-legged whinnying friend loomed large in a farmer's life.

A full program of events occupied both Friday and Saturday.

In between items rollicking music in real western style was provided by Mr. Ken McDonald and his band.

Selling was brisk and keen among the various horse buyers. Included among the latter were Mr. Alex Seniuk, who purchased on behalf of eastern buyers; Mr. LaPierre of Quebec and Mr. Ton Ziegler of Edmonton.

Said Mr. Seniuk: "I like particulary the well put-up saddle horses, the young Welsh mares and the colts." Included among his buys were heavy horses, Welsh ponies, saddle horses and some Shetland ponies.

"A good horse will always sell for a good price," stated Mr. Tony Ziegler of Edmonton, who was also a heavy buyer at the sale. His price of $645 for a pair of pinto mares was the highest at the sale. A pair of black mares owned by Mr. Peter Kit of Lavoy also fetched $600 and were sold to Mr. Bill Gretzan of Plain Lake. Another well-known buyer present at the sale was Mr. LaPierre of Quebec.

The auctioneers were Mr. C. Lovig, Mr. L. Cartier, Mr. A. McDonald, Mr. F. J. Brown and Mr. D. Hutton.

Judges for the events were Mr. R. Jones, assisted by Mr. R. Ireland and Mr. O. Strome, and Mr. S. Hines was in charge of the sale ring.

Summing the sale up, as one shrewd buyer observed, there were ',sure a lot of horses to pick from!"

Pancake House maintained brisk business between the sales and various events and kept hungry customers supplied with sausages, coffee, pancakes and bacon.

Items which attracted great interest were the horse pulling contest on Friday and he pony rases on Saturday, both witnessed by large crowds of enthusiastic spectators.

For those trippers of the "light fantastic toe" a big dance was held later both evenings, when gay crowds dressed in western attire danced to the music of Len McDonald and his band.

All who attended expressed their keen delight at this, Vermilion's first annual horse show and sale, and are looking forward to a repeat performance of the affair in next year's calendar of events.

With the warm weather comes the desire to be in the great outdoors. Picnics are fun and half of this fun is in cooking the food out-of-doors.

Simple but hearty fare is the rule for picnic menus. No utensils are necessary. A good bed of coals, a long pointed green stick for each member of the family; and a supply of steaks, chops, chicken broilers, hamburgers or frankfurters; buttered buns to serve them in; celery, carrot sticks, tomatoes, lettuce, cucumbers, etc., to accompany them; some fruit and perhaps doughnuts or cookies for dessert — what could be easier? And how good it tastes outside.

B. McCutcheon

For steaks, chops or broilers whittle green sticks to a point then split the sharpened end back a few inches and insert a chip of wood to keep the split ends apart. The sharp points inserted through the steaks holds them flat to broil nicely.

Savory stews, chowders or skillet meals may be prepared over an open fire with few utensils and a minimum of effort. A skillet may be supported by green sticks laid across an improvised fireplace of logs or stones. A stewing kettle may be suspended on a crane erected over the fire. Be sure that the crane is of green wood, otherwise it may catch fire — and that's the end of the stew!

An all in one meal broiled in aluminum foil is easy and delicious. Place a serving of steak, hamburger, or chicken on a large square of heavy aluminum foil. Pile on top a slice of onion, a slice of green pepper, a few slices of raw potato and three or four mushrooms. Bring edges up and fold them together in a drugstore wrap. Fold the ends together to make an airtight seal.

Bake on a grill (a wire mesh or an old oven rack on stakes works nicely) over glowing coals for about 50 minutes to one hour. Turn the packages several times. Eat from the foil with tomato and lettuce, buttered rye bread and pickles.

A picnic has always been a signal for good fun with family and friends. Why not plan a holiday and discover how much fun your family can have together cooking over the campfire.

Exhibition To Draw Record Crowd

Historic Days Will Return In Edmonton's 84th Annual Event

Next week a record attendance of approximately 415,000 persons will thrill to the sound of the calliope at the exhibition grounds. For the 85th successive year Northern Alberta residents will hear the music that accompanies the various rides, dear to the hearts of children. Raucous cries of hawkers will be heard, inviting the public to buy their wares and view their exhibits.

From the parade which is planned to commemorate the historic Klondike Days with costumes of that era to the world-famous RCMP Musical Ride, the nationally renowned RCAF band, the livestock show, the farm machinery and implement displays climaxed by the RCAF's "Red Knight" death defying aerobatics the Edmonton Exhibition Association has prepared the most spectacular, exciting and pleasing program presented in the long history of the organization.

The children will see their favorite song, "Old Macdonald's Farm," illustrated with an interesting display of animals.

Those who look back with a nostalgic longing to the "Gap Nineties" will thrill to that gay period of song and dance which comes to life in the Edmonton Gardens each night.

A full mile of thrilling rides to delight the youngsters, and the young of heart, with smaller rides for the smaller children, will be supervised by trained personnel.

Machinery Row will show industrial and farm machinery, new inventions and adoptations in every line, of intense interest to those with a mechanical turn of mind.

The livestock show, where the finest farm animals will be on display, will be open for free inspection, with free judging exhibitors, while $40,000 in cash prizes will be carried home by the owners of the adjudged best animals.

Every night the Edmonton Exhibition will present the Grandstand Revue, absolutely free to all exhibition visitors. Outstanding acts and production numbers will feature the brightest names in show business.

The training command band of the RCAF will perform nightly at the grandstand before the evening performance, and for the musical ride of world-famous Royal Canadian Mounted Police. This event will climax each grandstand performance in which 32 superb mounts ridden by the crack riders of this unit will present the most intricate designs and manoeuvres.

The RCAF's Red Knight will present a dazzling performance at the speed of sound, in a death-defying demonstration of aerobatics nightly at the exhibition.

A fully-furnished and equipped display home will be awarded some lucky person.

A dazzling display of smart and amusing designs in bright colors, representations of Canada's past, will be presented as a "good night" after each free grandstand revue.
